

Cinderella

Once upon a time, there was a beautiful girl named Cinderella. She lived with her wicked stepmother and two stepsisters. They treated Cinderella very badly.

One day, they were invited for a grand ball in the king's palace. But Cinderella's stepmother would not let her go.

They then went to the ball, leaving Cinderella alone at home.

Cinderella felt very sad and began to cry. Suddenly, a fairy godmother appeared and said, "Don't cry, Cinderella! I will send you to the ball!"

But Cinderella was sad. She said, " I don't have a gown to wear for the ball!" The fairy godmother waved her magic wand and changed Cinderella's old clothes into a beautiful new gown!

The fairy godmother then touched Cinderella's feet with the magic wand. And lo! She had beautiful glass slippers! " How will I go to the grand ball?" asked Cinderella. The fairy godmother found six mice playing near a pumpkin, in the kitchen. She touched them with her magic wand and the mice became four shiny black horses and two coachmen and the pumpkin turned into a golden coach. Before leaving, the fairy godmother said, " Cinderella, this magic will only last until midnight! You must reach home by then!"

When Cinderella entered the palace, everybody was struck by her beauty. The prince danced with her all night and nobody recognized the beautiful dancer. Cinderella was so happy dancing with the prince that she almost forgot what the fairy godmother had said.

At the last moment, Cinderella remembered her fairy godmother's words and she rushed to go home.

" Oh! I must go! " she cried and ran out of the palace.

One of her glass slippers came off but Cinderella did not turn back for it.

She reached home just as the clock struck twelve. Her coach turned back into a pumpkin, the horses into mice and her fine ball gown into rags.

The prince had fallen in love with Cinderella and wanted to find out who the beautiful girl was, but he did not even know her name. He found the glass slipper that had come off Cinderella's foot as she ran home.

The prince said, " I will find her.

The lady whose feet fits this slipper will be the one I marry! "

The next day, the prince and his servants took the glass slipper and went to all the houses in the kingdom.

They wanted to find the lady whose feet would fit in the slipper. All the women in the kingdom tried the slipper but it would not fit any of them.

Cinderella's stepsisters also tried on the little glass slipper. They tried to squeeze their feet and push hard into the slipper, but the servant was afraid the slipper would break.

Cinderella's stepmother would not let her try the slipper on, but the prince saw her and said, " Let her also try on the slipper! " The slipper fit her perfectly.

The prince recognized her from the ball. He married Cinderella and together they lived happily ever after.
